RUSSIAN TRADE WILL IMPROVE VERY SHORTLY

(By Associated Press)

RIGA, Nov. 21.—Russian trade, it is expected, will materially benefit next year by various improvements that have been projected. As announced at Riga, they include the deepening of Windau harbor and the widening of the gauge of some railway lines to permit through shipments from Baltic ports to Moscow.

A group of local financiers is arranging to enlarge the docking, storage and manufacturing facilities at Lihau where a free port will be organized.

Consideration is being given in a plan which will permit an English syndicate to rebuild and enlarge railway equipment shops at Derak, Riga and elsewhere.

Attempts to interest American capital in various projects to improve Russian trade via Latvia have thus far failed. According to some American financiers who have visited the country, this is principally due to lack of recognition by the United States government.

MUCH SPECULATION OVER TONOPAH '76

Rumors are in circulation that some important developments have taken place at the Tonopah 76 property, which is operated through the Ohio shaft of the West End company. The bid of 4 cents on this stock failed to jar any shareholders loose during the past few days, and it is hinted that one has been encountered in the raise being carried from the 800 level of the Ohio shaft of the West End Mining company.

AMONG NEW SILHOUETTES THE BOX COAT IS FAVORED

EVERY woman seeks distinction in dress, and is especially pleased when she discovers a suit that may justly lay claim to it, for suits must possess considerable stability in style. They are worn often and longer than other kinds of apparel, and much is demanded of them. They are required to vary accepted modes by ingenious differences, without going to any extremes; they must be conservative in order to be renewed, they must be spirited enough to escape being commonplace, and in most cases a youthful flavor is demanded of them. The task of choosing one that will fulfill all these obligations promises to be easier than it has been, for fall suits are shown in greater variety than for some seasons.

The launching of several distinctly different silhouettes and their acceptance gives one a choice in coats that vary much in outline. In length they range all the way from finger tip to those that reach almost to the bottom of the skirt. One may choose a model with a slim, close-fitting body and long waist, having a ruffled waist set on. Or the choice may fall upon the Russian blouse or the box coat and skirts may match the coats or they may not. Sometimes they are in checks or stripes, while the coat is plain.

WOMEN'S PRISONS ARE BEING CLOSED

CHICHESTER, England, Nov. 21.—In consequence of a decrease in the number of women convicts, the women's prison here is being closed. Recent years have seen a gradual closing down of prisons for women in this country and there are now only 25 left of 100 which were in existence some years ago.

MARSHAL FOCH PRESIDES OVER AMERICAN ARTS

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—The American Academy of Arts and Letters, the cornerstone of whose new building was laid on Saturday by Marshal Foch, was styled by Professor William Milligan Sloane as "the nation's council of literature and art." Hamlin Garland, poet and playwright, said it can be counted upon to support every movement for elevating American ideals of living, for preserving the beauties of nature and for upholding the permanent standard of art.

Marshal Foch appeared as the central figure at the dedication ceremonies after he had received the honorary degree of doctor of laws from Columbia university. He figured, not as a soldier, but as a delegate of the French academy, founded nearly 300 years ago.

The laying of the cornerstone last Saturday brought to fruition the dreams of a group of leaders of American art and letters who laid the foundation of the present academy in 1904 when they formed the National Institute of Arts and Letters. The present academy is chartered by the federal government.

The new building will be a part of the group at Broadway and 155th street, which includes the buildings for the Hispanic, American Indian, Numismatic and Geographical societies and the Spanish church. It will house a meeting room for the 50 members of the academy, library, exhibition room and executive offices. It will be distinctive in its architectural features.

Burglars Don't Seek the Light!

Darkness is their stock in trade. They work by stealth—unheard and unseen—their movements cloaked in secrecy. It's honest folks that see the light. They are the only ones who can risk it.

It's the same way in business. The merchant who is not sure of his goods does not dare to advertise. Advertising would hasten the end of his business career—put him to a test he could not meet.

The merchant who advertises, deliberately invites your inspection. He tells you about his product and then lets it stand on its own merits. You can depend on him. He knows his product is good.

That's one reason why it pays you to read the advertisements in THE BONANZA. It is through advertising that you are able to keep in touch with the good things that progressive business houses are spending their money to introduce and keep before you.

Advertisements are interesting, instructive and profitable. They throw a powerful light on the very things that concern you most. READ THEM!
